A SYSTEM OF SUPPORT

Does someone you love need a support system, to keep them safe?

Our professional support team – known as “Caregivers” – help manage lifestyles. We empower families with the guidance needed to advocate for one’s preferences, mentor them to make better choices to lead better lives. You may have an elderly parent, relative, or a child who needs medical care, rehabilitation services or ongoing support. We conduct a comprehensive assessment to design a care plan that makes sense, and we have had enormous success helping others live a vibrant lifestyle or in convalescent care. We listen to the journey that has brought you to us and pair each client with a compassionate representative, who understands your struggles, and wants to help make life better. That starts by alleviating the stressful management of a complicated case and allowing us to take care of all the details, giving you your life back.

As needed, care teams consist of a Registered or Licensed Practical Nurse. We also offer companion services. Your care manager is someone who has a wealth of experience. A person open to hearing what lead you down the path you have taken, and help you find your way back to familiar routines. It is our job to jump into your situation and make sure every one of your preferences is realized. We strive to care for your loved one as if you were doing it yourself, and usually the client (patient) gives us a little more respect because they know we are not family.

Drama Free Care Plans

Our clients are seniors or children with busy working families. These same clients had may be living at home and rely on their loved one (you) to cope with all the drama. Running their errands; buying groceries, pharmacy, managing staff issues, or dealing with undue stress because your parent fired their caregiver, and they're upset and need to be validated, causing you to cancel your plans to address their conflicts We understand all of the scenarios and eliminate the hassles. We take the lead managing the care plan.

Mentoring

Some of our clients have spent thousands of dollars on a care staff to manage their loved one or others have spent it on resources to keep their children clean. Yet 85% of addiction disorders reoffend. It isn't only about the treatment, it is about the triggers! Let us help put together a care plan to mentor your child's life, to fill voids and provide purpose-driven outcomes helping them to maintain sobriety. We become a coach, support system and mentor, giving guidance to help prevent your child from making the wrong choices.
